ABOUT ME

I'm a librarian-turned-developer who works in the SF Bay Area. I have experience working with Python/Django, as well as Javascript/React and MERN stack.

WORK EXPERIENCE (ABRIDGED)

Chefables
Full Stack Developer | March 2022 - Present
South San Francisco, CA

- Contributed to the implementation and maintenance of an ERP system for a gourmet school lunch program serving thousands of meals a day in San Francisco and Los Angeles

- Worked with a team of developers to implement frontend and backend features using Python/Django

- Collaborated with other developers to translate business requirements into extensible code to facilitate company growth

Fight
Frontend (Contract) | Aug 2021 - March 2022
San Ramon, CA

- Worked with the company's CTO to create a React Native application from the ground up
- Collaborated with other developers to implement product features in Next.js

- Worked on navigation redesign and a profile feature for the desktop's overlay

SELECTED PROJECTS

Code for America: Open Oakland (open source) [Website Link] [Github Link]
Worked with a team of volunteers implementing features for Funding Public Safety, a project tracking how the city spends public safety funds.

Mastermind [Website Link] [Github Link]
A full stack numbers guessing game that features authentication. The app uses bcrypt and jwt to log users in, and stores their score history in a MongoDB database.

Fight (Frontend Contract) [Website Link]
An esports social network. As a contractor, I implemented new features for the site using Next.js, Redux, and Sass, and helped build out a React Native app from scratch.

Movie Finder [Website Link] [Github Link]
An app that pulls movie info from The MovieDB API. Users can search films or see what's currently in theaters or coming soon. Built with React, Typescript, and Tailwind.
